PERRY
"Let's Communicate with Honors" is the Perry PTA meeting at 7:30 p.m. on Feb. 18. Founders Day program will be presented with a musical salute to the 70th year of PTA. Titled "Memories in Music," with lyrics and skits written by Mrs. Donald Rickabaugh, Founders Day chairman.

By presenting an Honorary Life Membership to a person who has contributed to the welfare of children and youth, Perry PTA will be adding $25 per award to the PTA Scholarship Fund in the name of the honoree. Mr. Donald Rickabaugh, Honorary Life chairman, will conduct the program.

Perry pupils registered 86 bike licenses through the courtesy of the Torrance Police Dept., Safety Division. PTA board members who assisted were Mmes. William LaTendresse, Donald Rickabaugh, S. Kleinhaus, Frank Hadley, Donald Pawly, and George Proctor.

SEPULVEDA
Sepulveda PTA will hold Founders' Day meeting, Wednesday, Feb. 15, at 7:30 p.m. Origin of the National PTA Congress in 1897 will be discussed and an additional feature of the program will be the presentation of the Honorary Life Membership by chairman Mrs. John E. Doner.

Mrs. Doner invited all past recipients of Honorary Life awards to attend this meeting. Mmes. Robert Saunders, John Blair, Joseph Orsini, Irene Mathwig, Anthony D'Acquisto, Walter Allingham, Margaret Briggs, and Messrs. Robert Gibson, Robert Martin, L. R. Steffy, and Patrick McManus.

TOWERS
The West High School Drama Club, under the direction of Mrs. Delvin J. Risenhuber, will present the program for the Towers Elementary PTA meeting, Tuesday, Feb. 14. Also, a report from the Nominating Committee will be given. The featured chairmen for February are Honorary Life and Hospitality. Hostesses for the meeting are Mmes. Marge Rowllins and Bob Nance.

The second paper drive of the year will be Tuesday morning, Feb. 21.

HALLDALE
At the monthly meeting of the Halldale Avenue PTA on Feb. 14 at 1:30 p.m. in the school auditorium, an Honorary Life Membership will be given to someone who has done outstanding work with and for the children of the community.

John Ryan, a Carson High School student, will be a guest. He will be recipient of the Music Scholarship from the 10th District CCPT. Past presidents and past honorary life members will be special guests. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

ANZA
Anza will celebrate Founders Day with a skit in which all board members will participate. Scout troops sponsored by Anza PTA will participate in the program, also Explorer Troop 248.

An outstanding member in the community, who has done extensive work with children, will be awarded Honorary Life Membership. Past recipients of the award have been invited to the meeting, and charter members of Anza, Anza teachers will sing "Phebe," in honor of Phebe Hearst, PTA founder.

Since it is Anza School's 10th birthday, a cake is being baked by Mrs. F. L. Knoch, 3rd vice president, and cakes are being donated by Girl Scout Troop 1117. The meeting will be called to order by Mrs. Julian Hart, president, on Feb. 16 at 7:30 p.m.

A Safety poster contest is being conducted at the school by Mrs. Al Correa, Safety chairman. Grades 1 through 8 are participating in the contest. The winner will receive an award.

ARNOLD
"Understanding Our Neighbors" will theme the Feb. 21 PTA gathering at 7:30 p.m. at the Arnold School.

Mrs. Carolyn Dock, American Field Service director, will introduce her Foreign Exchange Students in panel form for "School in Other Lands." This will feature Miss Selda Ustertunali attending West High from Turkey; Miss Elizabeth McChlery, North High from Scotland; Leo DeBever, South High from the Netherlands, and Daniel Darre, Torrance High, from Argentina. Frank North, a senior at Banning High was the Wilmington chapter's American Abroad during the summer of 1966 and will join the panel to relate his experiences in Brazil.

An International Doll collection by Mrs. Al Lukes will be on display throughout the evening.

Mrs. May Harris, Founder's Day chairman, will reveal the new recipient of the Honorary Life Award.

CRENSHAW
On Feb. 15, Crenshaw Elementary PTA members will relive memorable moments since the founding of the Crenshaw PTA, when Mrs. A. W. Adams, Founders Day chairman, presents an original tribute to the history of the unit. Former officers, past presidents, and Honorary Life recipients will take part in the recollection of 16 years of growth and development.

A final highlight of the program will be the presentation of this year's Honorary Life Membership by Mrs. Edward Escovar, chairman. Assisting her will be Mmes. Robert Hayes, Jack Hurt, James Rasmick, and E. W. Barsley. Mrs. Perry Baker, Torrance Council president, will deliver the inspirational message.

HICKORY
Bicycle registration will take place at Hickory School on Tuesday, Feb. 14, according to Mrs. Irving Ulmer, PTA Safety chairman. Members of the Torrance Police Department will issue bicycle licenses to students.

Safety posters drawn by Hickory students were judged on Feb. 10. Judges were Mmes. Ben Wallace, Irving Ulmer, Josef Ruzek and Ross Yamahata, who selected 1st, 2nd and 3rd prize winners from each class. The Torrance Police Dept. will select entrants to represent Hickory from winning posters to be in a city-wide contest.

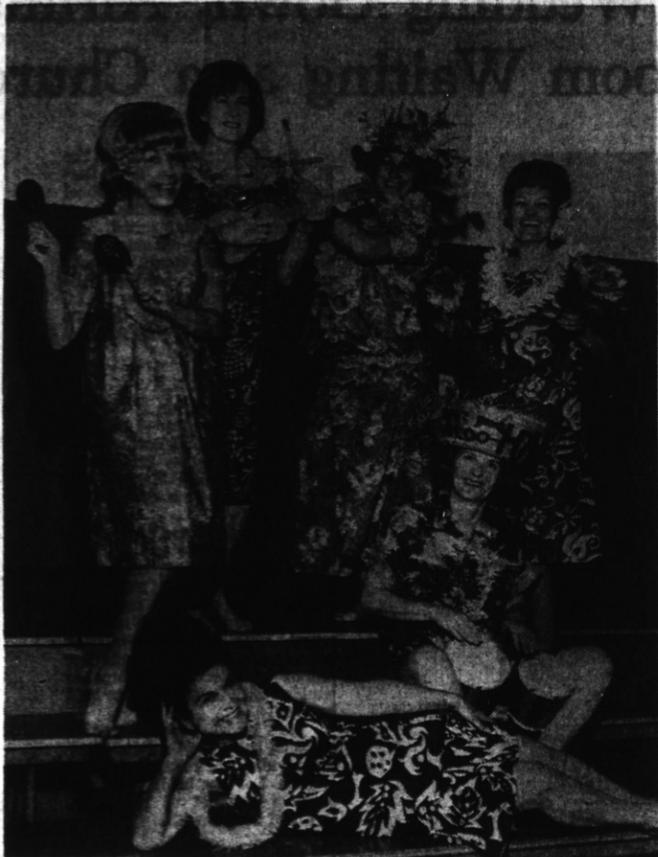

Feb. 15 PTA meeting will be a Founders Day program, with the theme "Our Past, Present and Future." Mrs. Delmar Michler, music and Founders Day chairman, has announced a musical program will be presented, with comedy skits featuring Mmes. Ben Wallace, John Van Preen, John Chamberlin, Ed Mach, Clifford Murrow, Charles Pecora, Phillip Scheaffer, Charles Sheets, Joseph Ruzek, John Berliner, Robert Ritchie, Milton Sumner and Charles McAfee. Past principals, PTA presidents and Honorary Life recipients have been invited to attend and Honorary Life Awards will be presented for this year.

MEADOW PARK
"Understanding the Challenge to Education," will be the theme at the Meadow Park PTA meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 14, 7:30 p.m.

Historian, Mrs. Roxy Battles, will present the Founders Day program and three Honorary Life Memberships will be presented.

Twenty-six students from the 5th through 8th grades will participate in a Spelling Bee. Two representatives from each class will compete for the honor of being the Spelling Champion of Meadow Park School. Mrs. Barbara Johnson, 7th grade teacher, is in charge of the contest arrangements.

Canteoze Camp Fire Group will conduct the flag ceremony and 4th grade Room Mothers will serve as hostesses.

PTA THESIANS TO PERFORM
Four skits will be staged by members of the Hickory PTA to spark their Founders Day program on Wednesday, Feb. 15 at 8 p.m. at the school. An Honorary Life Membership will be presented and refreshments will be served. In rehearsal for the Hawaiian skit, with bongo drums and hula dances, are from top, Mmes. J. Ruzek, P. Mach, second level, Mmes. L. Schaeffer, B. J. Chamberlain and Ben Wallace, president. Stealing the spotlight is Mrs. D. W. Michler, Founders Day chairman. (Press-Herald Photo)

Open House Today Honors Golden-weds

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Lee, 705 Sartori, who have made their home in Torrance for the past five years, are being honored at an Open House this afternoon celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary.

The reception from 2 until 8 p.m. will be held at the home of the couple's daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Kraegel, 817 Fay-smith. Co-hosting the party are the honor guests' two sons, Arnold and John Lee.

All friends of the family are invited to attend.

Formal Tea For Mothers

Bishop Montgomery High School home-management class, aided by sophomore homemaking class, will present a formal tea honoring the mothers and grandmothers of the Senior Class. The affair, under the direction of Sister Marion Joseph, home economics instructor, is scheduled for Feb. 12 from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. The theme will be "Love, Hearts, and Flowers."

Officers of the Mothers Club and wives of Boosters Club officers will preside over the tables. A receiving line of girl's section officers and their mothers, complete with corsages and guest book, will enhance the event.

Those who will comprise the receiving line are Mrs. Jason, Gale and Janice; Mrs. Larry Chappell and Linda. Mrs. Frank Kristufek and Carol, Mrs. Liz McAuley and Kathy, and Joette Roth.

Mothers and grandmothers of all senior girls, and the faculty and faculty wives are invited.

Camp Fire Dinner Feb. 13

Hollywood Palladium will be the setting for the 43rd Annual Dinner Meeting of the Los Angeles Area Council of the Camp Fire Girls. It will take place on Monday, Feb. 13, at 7 p.m.

Instead of a lot of speeches, the entertainment will be provided by the various groups from the six districts which comprise the Los Angeles Area Council. Over 150 girls and leaders from the Harbor District, including several groups from Torrance, worked on the table decorations under the direction of Mrs. Robert Atha.

Sleeths Visit Son, Student At Stanislaus

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sleeth Jr. of Waleria have returned from a several days trip on which they visited their son, Mark, a freshman at Stanislaus State College in Turlock.

Mark, a South High graduate, is on the Stanislaus basketball team and his parents saw the game in which his college played Pacific College of Fresno. Mark was on the National Merit Awards Honorable Mention at South High where he played the guard position.

From Turlock, Mr. and Mrs. Sleeth went on to San Jose and Sunnyvale where they visited old friends.
